

Resources for Identifying Professional Contacts

Student Organizations

Join student organizations to connect with student leaders with interests in similar subject areas.

<http://www.gwsba.com/student-organizations/list/>

GW Law Faculty

Identify faculty members with expertise in your areas of interest.

<https://www.law.gwu.edu/faculty>

Bar Associations

Contact leaders and practitioners in the local bar association by city and/or practice area.

<https://www.dcbbar.org/communities/index.cfm>

Student Evaluations

Find students and alumni who have held summer internships in cities, practice areas, and organizations in which you are interested. (Portal log-in required)

<https://my.law.gwu.edu/GWLAW/SummerEmploymentEvaluations/default.aspx>

LinkedIn

Used the advanced search in LinkedIn to find practitioners and alumni by practice area, organization, or geography. Ask a counselor for LinkedIn tips.

<https://www.linkedin.com/>

Martindale

Find practitioners by firm size, practice area, and location.

<https://www.martindale.com/>

Career Center Site

Get more tips on informational interviews at the Career Center website.

http://www.gwlawcareers.org/?page_id=10755

Practice Area Lists

Lists of alumni practitioners in selected practice areas in the DC, MD, and VA areas.

<https://drive.google.com/open?id=0B1tweNQRVaOINkM4V0hraExSSXM>